Office Chairs - Mesh / Fabric

Site :Hexaware, Chennai | Products : Helix HB Chair & Enrich Conference Table

A mesh office chair speaks in quiet confidence. It doesn't shout status, but it doesn't back down either. It's built for movement, breathability, and long hours that don't feel like punishment. The mesh adapts to your back, not the other way around. It's for people who think clearly, move fast, and don't like being held back by heat, by stiffness, or by post-lunch slumps.

Office Chairs - Leather / Leatherette

Site : Infosys Campus, Hyderabad | Products : Pixel HB Chairs with Gable End Table

Let's be honest: a leather chair does more than hold your weight. It holds your presence. When someone walks into a room and sees a leather chair at the head of the table, they know exactly who calls the shots. The material tells a story—about leadership, confidence, and not needing to prove anything. Real or premium leatherette, the feel is rich, the support uncompromising. But here's the thing: we've built this line to challenge assumptions. Our leather and leatherette chairs are available across the board from the CEO's corner to the analyst's desk. Because authority doesn't always come from elevation. Sometimes, equality is the message.

Lightweight, stackable, easy to move, yet solid enough to handle hours of focus. They're built for turnover and transformation. For onboarding sessions that run long. For workshops that go deep. For rooms that change shape depending on the day.
